Description

I've been trying to unsubscribe from the tracker on the Tiki Dev site for over 24 hours. It's been successful for everything but the Wish List Tracker. Clicking on the "stop monitoring" icon has no visible effect and I continue to receive email notifications of entries on that tracker.

With the recent upsurge in emailed notifications I have again attempted to cancel my watches on the Bugs & Wish list tracker. However, in my account setting I still show no watches set for me to cancel. How can I stop receiving watch emails generated by this site?

Can you update the state of this bug?
