Signals and Slots

"The newest change is the introduction of a Signal/Slot type of mechanism to handle events within Tiki. It will allow to connect features through hooks rather than having to go directly in the code to check the feature and adding an extra call, leading to extremely long functions with sequential operations."

blogpost20