Description

When I click on "Monitor this Tracker" It doesn't appear in the "My watches" section. It would be very nice to have a list of monitored trackers there as it would be quicker to verify. I would actually like to have the option of only seeing my trackers in the "My watches" section without receiving any emails when a change occurs.

Thanks to all volunteers on this !

Solution

OUPS, It does appear, it's just that you have to activate this in the preferences to show "My items"...
Not sure what Items include but they apparently include trackers.
