Description

Same as the Flickr Photo Album for Wordpress, but for tikiwiki.

Workaround

Displays a right-floated flickr slideshow box. You need to know the used set's id (flickr groups pictures in sets), which you can see in the set's url. (I just took the code generated by flickr if you click the "share" button and made it dynamic).

```
{FLICKRSLIDE(profile=Nicolamr,set_id=72157621906377725)}{FLICKRSLIDE}
```

/lib/wiki-plugins/wikiplugin_flickrslide.php

<?php

function wikiplugin_flickrslide($data, $params) {

extract($params, EXTR_SKIP);

if (!$width) $width = '400';
if (!$height) $height = '300';
if (!$float) $float = 'right';

if (!$profile) return 'No profile indicated';
if (!$set_id) return 'No set selected';

$url = '%2Fphotos%2F' . $profile . '%2Fsets%2F' . $set_id . '%2F';

return
    '<object width="' . $width . '" height="' . $height . '" style="float: ' .
    $float . '">
        <param name="flashvars" value="offsite=true&lang=it-it&page_show_url=' .
    $url . 'show/&page_show_back_url=' . $url . '&set_id=' . $set_id . '&jump_to="></param> <param name="movie"
value="http://www.flickr.com/apps/slideshow/show.swf?v=71649"></param>
        <param name="allowFullScreen" value="true"></param>
        <embed type="application/x-shockwave-flash"
src="http://www.flickr.com/apps/slideshow/show.swf?v=71649" allowFullScreen="true" flashvars="offsite=true&lang=it-it&page_show_url=' . $url .
'show%2F&page_show_back_url=' . $url . '&set_id=' . $set_id . '&jump_to=" width="' .
$width . '" height="' . $height . '"></embed>
        </object>';
}

?>

```
