Description

If you have a clean tiki 6.1 install, the default preview is made with some kind of ajax include above the edit area.

but this preview has no linebreaks in it.

if you disable this and have the "standard" (like in tiki 3.x) preview you have linebreaks in the preview

The expected line-breaking in previews seems pretty random...

- Sometimes there are little or no breaks.
- sometimes there are correct breaks.
- Sometimes there are bigger breaks.
