Description

A user with all forum-perms except tiki_p_admin_forum can edit any forum post.
That shouldn't be like that..

Solution

I think, it would be enough to let forum users edit their own posts and allow them to edit all posts, when having tiki_p_admin_forum.
Feel free to make that more granular, if you think, it's appropriate..

[14:37:17] <sylvieg> some perms are missing around post comment. You can limit forum post but you can't limit the edit/remove of a forum post [14:38:32] <amette> sylvieg : yup, confirmed, opened that yesterday: http://dev.tikiwiki.org/tiki-view_tracker_item.php?itemId=386 [14:41:47] <sylvieg> amette: if you don't have tiki_p_edit_comments and you are teh user.. you still can edit it [14:42:14] <amette> ah sylvieg - comments, sorry - I was now thinking of forum posts... [14:42:38] <sylvieg> the same

I just tested. I do not see the bug in Tiki 1.9.7
I would be very surprised this bug ever occurred.
