Description

trying to preview a wiki-page with an name containing german umlauts (e. g. "Grafikdesign - Abschlüsse") leads to the following SQL-Error: Illegal mix of collations (latin1_swedish_ci,IMPLICIT) and (utf8_general_ci,COERCIBLE) for operation '='

for (likely) the following query:

SELECT `page_id`, `pageName`, `hits`, `description`, `lastModif`, `comment`, `version`, `version_minor`, `user`, `ip`, `flag`, `points`, `votes`, `wiki_cache`, `cache_timestamp`,
`wiki_authors_style`, `comments_enabled` FROM `tiki_pages` WHERE `pageName`='Grafikdesign -
Abschlüsse'

it seems that the request handling of the char-encoding for preview is not proper.

What is the character encoding of the database? Can you reproduce on a fresh installation?

Tiki 8 has several fixes for non-latin characters, and it is likely that this is fixed.
