In a tracker, when i set a field "text area" to use toolbar and wysiwyg i will have a lot of Unwanted alert "You are about to leave this page". Go at :http://dev.tiki.org/tracker5 Click on the button "View Items".

I turned it off because it was making dev.tiki.org unusable

I don't know if this was a regression or not (I don't think WYSIWYG was activated before)

I had turned it off because not needed here and it was very annoying with that bug
