- ● Allow using D(yyyymmdd hh:mm) to hardcode dates in Plugin Convene thorough direct wiki page edition
- ☒ Timezone and convene plugin
- ☒ PluginConvene: tell user chosen date and time once it is chosen
- ● Plugin Convene: Extend the deadline if there's a tie
- ☒ Tiki Calendar add possibility to pick a time zone (especially UTC) so daylight saving time (DST) is well handled.

Description

Site timezone is not respected when using Plugin Convene

E.g.: site default is UTC-2. You choose your time in the convene plugin, as UTC (even if you have no indication of the timezone, it seems), for instance, and the stored time is shown 2 hours before the time you selected in your choice.

Reproduced using Tiki 13.x here:

<https://tiki.org/Admins+Team+Meetings>

However, I can't reproduce it in an associated show instance in trunk. Maybe it has something to do with the timezone set in php settings, and not just the setting in Tiki?

I kept the tiki set as "Admin home > General > Date and time > Displayed Time zone: Use site default".
