Description

In Wiki page, the print function should show the current information of the page, but the page was shown the unapproved details after I clicked the print icon. I have activated the Approval function so that the edited page will be shown after approval.

Info to reproduce it :

u: admin

p: 12345

- Log in as admin to the attached show.t.o instance:
<http://marshallau-11729-5521.show.tikiwiki.org/>
- See that the "Official Document" has no approved page:
<http://marshallau-11729-5521.show.tikiwiki.org/tiki-index.php?page=Official+document>
- click at the Wiki print button, and you will see the latest version of the document, even if unapproved:
<http://marshallau-11729-5521.show.tikiwiki.org/tiki-print.php?page=Official+document>
- log out as admin, and as anonymous, visit again the url of the print-version of the document.
You can see it freely:

To prevent confusions: I did not volunteered to solve. I just confirmed the bug, and suggested to submit a bug report about it.
