- ● Pref: Sortable Chosen Multi-selects Not Working

Description

Since Tiki 17 (default setting + trackers) the tracker plugins (that have a parameters for fields) it is not possible to set the fields order using the GUI.

The selector fields show then so I can select the fields, but I can't order them.
It seems the order is set alphabetically...

User should be able to select an order of the fields in the GUI.

Solution

Solution would be adding a legacy switch ("toggle") icon to be able to edit the field as "1:2:4:3" or add drag and drop support to reorder the field names in that field (would need to work with both: with or without Chosen JS enabled).

Alternatively, use the "Sortable Chosen Multi-selects" pref (jquery_ui_chosen_sortable) although sometimes this doesn't seem to be getting applied to the plugin edit popup due to some bs4 changes...

Luci that solution seems like a good workaround.

Luci's workaround is good and chosen multi-select has been replaced with select2.
