Description

The Wiki-Syntax page on the documentation site became empty between 2017-07-07 and 2018-07-29 (the toc plugin would display nothing).

This is an important feature of Tiki and should be properly documented. (or this page should lead to a page were the documentation is hidden).

This page was rolled back by chibaguy to a version which is not dependent on the missing structure.

Yes, rolled back and then updated (quite a few wiki syntax details weren't listed). Of course if there's a bug causing data loss we still need to understand what happened and how to fix it.

Bernard, can you specify how this was fixed?

Bernard Sfez / Tiki Specialist 05 Nov 18 15:17 GMT-0000

No.

I just see it work now.
