Description

I was working on the forum4 (Features / Usability) today and later on I found out that I got a WSOD.

<https://tiki.org/forum6> is working fine

This is happening if I'm logged.

As anonymous I can see the page.

Seems to be working now. Thanks whoever/whatever fixed it... Too bad we will probably never know what caused it till it happens again :-/

~~It worked on a different browser (chrome), I had to validate cookie consent and I see it is ok. Back on my previous browser (safari) it is still WSoD.~~

Here my cookie content:

~~Once I deleted my cookie for Tiki all went back to normal.~~

Of course because after deleting cookies I'm not logged. 😊
