Description

I was doing some changes in the tiki.org look and feel => custom css field on one save I got this:

The field was emptied, I turned totally green and was ready to jump out of the window ! By change (as I had many unsaved work while using "save as minor") I had the content pasted in a text editor by security and could restore. (lost time)

Seems we have some preg backtrack limitation
(<http://php.net/manual/en/function.preg-last-error.php>)

I could get over it by shorting (shorthand?) a background style, but one day someone else...
