and here you can see how it is originally rendered by Tiki:

The problem is that when I try to edit the same page, Tiki "eats" or cuts down the original text to:

I'd really like to use Markdown markup within Tiki, but these issues are really problematic.

Let me add that I tried same thing by using my modified Markdown Extra plugin which uses another library and the result is the same which means it is some clash within Tiki (plugin mechanism) itself.

Hello,

just to confirm that solves the problem. 😊
