Description

At the last step in the tiki installer, site admin is offered to enter tiki with or without locking it . The two buttons to choose those actions overlap, and not all text from the second button can be read.
Even in standard computer screens (not narrow)

should be better now

Xavier de Pedro 23 Nov 19 18:08 GMT-0000

yes, Benoit, better, thanks!

I re-opened this issue because it still overlaps on my screen. (safari) I attached a screenshot. It was the latest checkout of 20.x, where I see that the fix was applied.

i committed a new fix. the buttons should now wrap to multiple lines earlier than before.
