Description

non-valid url due to doubler slash in mention notification emai from t.o

Example from a real email I received:

jonnybradley mentioned you in
<https://tiki.org//Roundtable+Meeting+2020+07#mentioned-Xavi-section-1>

Note that there are two slashes after tiki.org in the url, which makes Tiki reply that this page doesn't exist.

If you try with one slash only, itr works as expected:

<https://tiki.org/Roundtable+Meeting+2020+07#mentioned-Xavi-section-1>
