

It does not matter if the wiki page is part of the structure or not.

On screen there are only numbers shown:

Solution

Expected PDF output is a TOC that has no bullet since the TOC in the wiki page also doesn't have bullets

I would put in the time to solve this bug. But I would need somebody to guide me where to start. Any senior dev to support me very much appreciated.

Hi, this should be only matter of some missing CSS (SCSS) code to show or hide the bullets. What should be the expected result?

David Bense 25 Mar 21 06:25 GMT-0000

The expected output (to me) would be a TOC where there are numbers without the bullets, just as seen on the screen.

added expected output to description
