Description
How can I move the carousel plugin to the center of the page? The plugin doesn't seem to have a center alignment as own parameter, and when I enclose it in center markup, only the image caption (!) gets centered, the container of image and caption stays on the left hand side...

Is this a feature or a bug? ;-)

hman, for stuff like this, it's best to start a topic in the Tiki community forums, then we can either suggest a method to get the results you want, or determine if it's really a bug, and suggest you move it here for a bug report.

@hman, please note this item is categorised as Support Request, a category used now for PAID request. If necessary recategorise accordingly to your wish.

When was this changed? There are several other reports from me marked support request. And how shall I mark something that may, or may not, be a bug report? The behaviour of carousel could be considered a bug, but I am not sure on that.

It has been discussed in the developers list and was changed lately to allow people to hire a developer for their emergencies.

From now on;
Support request = Asking someone to fix or improve for money.
Thanks!

Ah, and how I am supposed to know this? Tiki's devs are not really good at telling people or documenting stuff...

And when it comes to paid services: That's fine for me, I would actually have stuff that really would justify that. But beforehand, the most important question is: What are the terms? What kind of contract, what are the rates, what is the response time and time to solution?

John Morris 12 Apr 21 17:38 GMT-0000

hman, here is the consultants page. https://tiki.org/Consultants
I have used it a couple times and had good results. Their pricing is fair, and each consultant has their own pricing, and terms, so the best thing to do is contact one or more consultant with your project needs, and get an estimate. and terms. Good luck!

Replied to hman,... Thanks. One thing that I noticed: That page lists (many) more names than I see here on d.t.o... So either many of them do not contribute to Tiki or use some other aliases...
